SPANISH FILM FESTIVAL TO SCREEN AT USD

A Spanish film festival featuring the works of Luis Berlanga has been announced by the University of San Diego's Spanish Department in collaboration with "Casa de España." The film series begins November 29 and will run through December 10. All films are in Spanish with English subtitles and will be shown in Salomon Lecture Hall, DeSales Hall. Admission is free and the public is invited.

The Festival offers "That Happy Couple" on November 29, "Placido" on December 1, "The National Shotgun" on December 2, "Calabuch" on December 3, "National Heritage" December 6, "National III" December 8, "Welcome, Mr. Marshall" December 9, and "The Executioner" on December 10. All shows begin at 7 p.m. Many of the films took honors at the Cannes and other festivals.

Berlanga, until recently the president of the National Film Library of Spain, was awarded the National Prize for Cinematography in 1981. That same year he won the Gold Medal for Merit in the Fine Arts and was selected as one of the "Five Directors of the Year" by the International Film Guide. In addition to his work as director of films, he has been a teacher, writer, and critic.
